Job Title: Visitor Experience Assistant – Modern Apprenticeship (3 posts)

Contract: 18 months (subject to successful 6 month probationary period) plus training agreement between the individual, National Museums Scotland and the College provider

Salary: £16,033 per annum (based on 35 hours per week)

Employer:

At National Museums Scotland, we care for collections of national and international importance, preserving them, interpreting them and making them accessible to as many people as possible. We work with museums and communities across Scotland and beyond, introducing our collections to a much wider audience than can physically visit our museums, through partnerships, research, touring exhibitions, community engagement, digital programmes and loans.

Work Environment:

Based in the National Museum of Scotland, Chambers Street and the National War Museum within Edinburgh Castle, you will work 35 hours a week, 5 over 7, that includes weekend working. You will be provided with a uniform and identification badge. This time will include periods of training and development and formal assessment to achieve an SVQ Level 2 qualification. You will also receive mentoring supporting on an ongoing basis from an experienced colleague in a “buddy” capacity.

What might a day in this job look like?

Through providing exceptional standards of visitor experience, you will ensure that all visitors are welcomed warmly, encouraged to learn about and engage with the collections, and have a safe and enjoyable visit to the Museum. Through ongoing training, development and assessment, you will work towards competence in undertaking the following key responsibilities:

- To be proactive, approachable and visitor focussed in being ready to offer support, directions and assistance to visitors.
- To be visible at all times, maintaining a consistent, engaging and professional manner in pursuit of the provision of a high quality customer service that is visitor experience-focussed.
- To promote and support a broad range of public programmes, exhibitions and events e.g. group visits and learning events.
- To engage proactively with visitors responding to their needs as appropriate, including being able to answer a diverse range of questions and enquiries.
- To be security conscious and alert, ensuring knowledge and implementation of all museum security procedures to safeguard the collections and visitors. This includes observation, daily gallery checks for assigned areas and providing first response to incidents.
- To develop and maintain an appropriate level of knowledge of the Museum’s collections, displays, objects and stories, and activities in order to assist visitors.
- To facilitate in the selling of tickets and guidebooks, and any other business initiatives, including proactively encouraging visitor donations through donation boxes and Gift Aid.
- To deal with enquiries and provide information whether in person, by telephone or other means.
- To ensure familiarity with organisational procedures and follow them as required.
- To ensure the public spaces within the museum are always maintained to the highest standards of presentation and taking action where necessary.
- To be committed to good health and safety and access practice and ensure familiarity with NMS Health and Safety policies, procedures and guidelines.

What will I learn?

- SVQ Level 2 in Customer Services.
- Core Skills including:
 - Communication
 - Working with Others
 - Problem Solving
 - Information and Communications Technology
 - Numeracy.

On successful completion of the apprenticeship, you will be guaranteed an interview for any permanent Visitor Experience Assistant post which becomes available.

What Qualifications / Qualities are required?

In order to comply with funding criteria, candidates must be aged 18 - 23 years.

Customer service starts with a smile. Of the many qualities a visitor experience assistant needs to be at the top of their game, two of the most important are passion and friendliness. We are looking for people who want to make a difference to a visitor's experience of the museum, someone who wants to do their best to deliver the best experience possible, someone who is passionate about pro-actively helping people, offering assistance and solving issues throughout their day. Good listening and observation skills, being able to work closely with your team members and others, together with a 'can-do' attitude are important parts of the job.

A passion for service goes hand-in-hand with friendliness and a personable attitude. We are looking for candidates who smile, are confident and make good eye contact with people. This is a front-line role and we are looking for the types of people who give a positive impression of our organisation.

Our aim is to seek out young people who may not have considered a career in customer services in a museum setting before and equip them with the necessary skills and knowledge to go on to start and make an informed decision about their career direction. By taking part, you will gain an understanding of what options are open to you in a customer service environment while gaining real experience on the job.

Candidates are not expected to have any experience of working in a museum but it is important that anyone who applies is interested in how culture can be relevant to different communities, has a passion for working with people and helping them appreciate and enjoy the role museums play in their everyday life.

We welcome candidates who are not in education or employment; young people from either black or minority ethnic backgrounds; and young people with a disability.

Job Title: IT Management for Business - Graduate Level Apprenticeship (9 posts)

Contract: 4 Years

Salary: £14,625 per annum starting salary plus company benefits

Employer:

CGI is a global business with 70,000 professionals in hundreds of locations across the Americas, Asia-Pacific and Europe who provide end-to-end IT and business process services that facilitate the ongoing evolution of our clients' businesses. CGI has been officially ranked number one for its outstanding employee offerings in the 2017 survey of UK companies by the Top Employers Institute. CGI also received Top Employer Europe certification for the 4th consecutive year.

Work Environment:

The best thing about joining us is that, while you may start working in one area, the opportunity to move internally is huge, so you can take control of your career from your first day. The Edinburgh Programme is sponsored by our North, Energy, Utilities and Telecoms (EUT) area of the business and you could be based from our Edinburgh or Glasgow office.

What might a day in this job look like?

We're offering you a unique opportunity to be part of something exciting and earn while you learn on our Edinburgh Graduate Level Apprenticeship. We're a company that each day enables the transfer of £3 trillion, protects against 43 million cyber-attacks, drives two thirds of the world's SMS messages, helps satellites journey into space, and who employs 70,000 professionals from hundreds of locations worldwide.

The nature of our business you work on 'projects', meaning you're never doing the same thing and you can have different roles across various projects, so there is no 'typical day'. As CGI is a consultancy, it may also mean you are working from your base office, on client site, in another CGI office or sometimes from home. You should therefore be prepared for some travel in your role. It really does vary at CGI and that's the exciting thing, it really is up to you to shape and develop your career in the direction you want to go with the support of others.

You will have a designated People/Career Manager who will support you with your career development and professional conduct at CGI. You will also have Line Managers on your projects that look after you on a day-by-day basis and a 'Buddy' who is a current or graduated student of a school leaver programme to help you with anything else you may need.

What will I learn?

Join our programme and you'll study towards a BSc (Hons) IT Management for Business (ITMB), one day a week at Edinburgh Napier University, whilst spending the other four days a week developing your career on real projects at CGI. You'll also benefit from a competitive starting salary, fully paid tuition fees and all the support you need to succeed. No one day is the same at CGI, meaning you can shape and develop your career throughout the course of the programme then continue with us after graduation.

This course will take four years to complete and, with our sponsorship, you won't have to pay a single penny in tuition fees. We'll even provide the course resources and materials required, so there's no need to worry about textbooks either. You can also use your laptop you are given when you join CGI to use at university. Individuals who participate in the scheme are able to access the same learning opportunities as those who go down the traditional route of direct entry into college or university.

What Qualifications / Qualities are required?

Right now, we're on the lookout for talent - students and school leavers, people who are passionate about technology and hungry to learn. You'll be proving yourself from day one - solving problems, taking responsibility and making decisions. And with open-ended prospects for advancement, you'll have every opportunity to reach the top.

The preferred requirement is 4 Highers at grade B or above including 1 in Maths, Physics or Computing (equivalent qualifications are accepted) unless you can show strong technical (programming/development) ability through work experience or extra-curricular activities. Also, at least 7 National 5s at grade 1-3 including English or Maths (equivalent qualifications are accepted).

Job Title: Artisan Baker - Modern Apprenticeship

Contract: Permanent after trial

Salary: Modern Apprenticeship National Minimum Wage for the first year

Employer:

At the Breadwinner we're passionate about baking. Since 1973 our master craftsmen bakers have been baking in Edinburgh - kneading and shaping dough by hand. We prefer to use traditional, simple methods and allow time to naturally enhance our products, rather than adding anything that would change the quality or flavour of our breads. We're proud of our heritage - and work hard to supply breads, cakes and pastries that are locally made, freshly baked and full of flavour.

Work Environment:

You will be working in a small team within a busy wholesale artisan bakery at South Gyle.

What might a day in this job look like?

- Learn and apply food hygiene and safety practices, personal hygiene, equipment and work place cleaning, stock rotation systems, and the systematic and preventative approach of Hazard Analysis and Critical Control Point (HACCP) in food production process.
- Learn about the main ingredients used in baking and how to use and store them.
- Weigh ingredients according to recipes and calculate the amounts needed for a given yield (output).
- Follow recipes and processes for making baked goods.
- Use and clean specialised machinery (mixers, dough breaker, oven etc) after each use as required.
- Use specialist tools (rolling pin, piping bags etc) for producing products.
- Understand and conduct proper fermentation for yeasted products.
- Hand divide, shape breads and buns and baking goods.
- General cleaning of equipment and work place area as required.
- Reflective practice on all aspects of the job, while constantly striving to achieve high quality and regularity of products.

What will I learn?

You will complete a 3-4 year apprenticeship which will include practical on the job training working closely with some of the best bakers in Scotland. This training will be supplemented by SQA accredited SVQs.

What Qualifications / Qualities are required?

- Qualifications aren't important – we are looking for someone who will be dedicated to learning the skills required to become a fully qualified baker.
- We are looking for a motivated young person with a passion for bread and baking who strives to achieve high standards and pays attention to detail.
- You should have good communication and problem solving skills, be numerate, hardworking, organised and enjoy working in a team.

If you are successful in the first round of interviews, you may be invited along to spend some time in the bakery to see what working there would really be like.

Closing Date: This position will close when a suitable candidate has been found.
