

WHAT is Engage?

Engage is a Boroughmuir Parent Council careers initiative designed to help S2-S6 pupils connect with professionals in a relaxed environment.

There are three events a year: 'Choices' in September, 'Alternatives' in February, and 'Leadership' in June.

Five speakers from various fields tell us about their role and how they got there.

WHO are our Speakers?

Law:

Sarah Letson, Legal Director,
Financial Restructuring,
DLA Piper UK LLP

Mobile Communications/Engineering:

Harald Haas, Distinguished Professor,
University of Strathclyde

Medicine:

Kate Theodosiou, Consultant Anaesthetist,
Royal Infirmary of Edinburgh

AstroPhysics:

Rob Ivison, Director for Science,
European Southern Observatory (Munich)

Marketing:

Cate Nelson-Shaw, Marketing Director,
Remarkable;
Board Member for Dancebase and
Creative Scotland

WHY should you attend?

Attend and you'll get the chance to:

- Meet professionals from a wide range of fields and hear inspiring stories about their decisions and career paths
- Ask them questions in a small-group setting
- Gain information to make subject choice easier
- Hear about different fields of work, from the traditional to the careers of the future
- Make potential contacts for work experience
- Increase your chances five-fold of leaving school with a positive destination
- Learn that there are always second chances!

HOW & WHEN does it happen?

Tuesday 29 September
18:30-20:00

The event is usually held locally, however, given the current situation, it will take place on Zoom this time.

Boroughmuir parents/carers are welcome to join their pupils on the call.

Please register at EventBrite to receive the meeting link:
