Mrs Paterson

S1-6 World Languages and Cultures Club: Bring your lunch to room 1.04 every Monday lunchtime if you would like to join World Languages and Cultures club, organised by Miss Gray and Miss Menard. Learn any language you like using language apps and games, come to teach your own language(s) to others, or use it as a friendly space to get to know others and their cultures.

Miss Gray & Miss Menard

S1-6 Eco Committee:

The eco committee is a pupil-run group helping the school become more climate- and nature-friendly. There are subgroups involved in rewilding the school grounds, putting together climate action week, working with lead janitors on the bin system, and even meeting with politicians. There's room for anyone who wants to make a difference, lead a group, or cares about the planet we live on! Monday lunchtimes every week, 3.07.

Mr Bird

S1-6 Saroj Lal Award: The annual Saroj Lal Award is taking place in March 2025. The nominations can relate to any aspect of equalities and will be under the following categories:

- Proud to be Me
- How Prejudice Makes Me Feel
- Artivism

Entries should be submitted to Miss Ross by Wednesday 11th of December at lunchtime for the judging. Please include a description of why you chose this piece and what it represents to you. The entries can be something that you have created as classwork and do not need to be created especially for the award. If you have any questions, come and see me in room 2.12.

Miss Ross

S1-3 Boys Basketball Club: S1-S3 Boys Basketball Club has been cancelled this Monday as the coaches will be with the U15s school team at a cup fixture.

Mr Segall

S5 LEAPS Assembly: There will be a LEAPS assembly for all S5 pupils during P1 on Tuesday 19th November. Please register with your P1 teacher before making your way to the assembly hall.

Mrs Scherzner

S1 Science Club: Is it anchor or is it boat, will it sink or will it float? Come along to our building challenge this week. Design a boat and then test it out. Best boat will win a prize!
